Planning Trip to Panamá

We will be going to Panamá April 30 - May 4, as we begin to make plans for our long-term move in August.

Because of the timing of this trip, our May update will be sent out by May 7. We'll be excited to share some details about this important trip with you.

Always Learning

God's Love and Faithfulness

We're so excited to get to Panamá. There are so many needs and opportunities to teach and disciple national pastors. However, we have to learn Spanish, and that's a good thing.

We are learning Spanish, but the Lord is using this time in our lives for so much more. (That's just like Him.) He's teaching us about ourselves, about Himself, He's preparing us, and He's reminding us of His love and faithfulness.

In March, one of His gracious reminders came through our friend, Jared Redden. Jared was with us for three days, and he was such an encouragement to us. Isaac had a great time.

Isaac was also able to celebrate his 4th birthday, and we all had a great day. Isaac loves life in Costa Rica!

Prayer Requests

- Our continued language and culture learning. (It's intense right now, but we love it!)
- Our upcoming exploration trip to Panamá.
- That we will build good relationships with national pastors and their wives and be godly friends and examples to them.
