Putting Prayer Into Practice

We were in our third day of teaching hermeneutics (principles for Bible interpretation) to a group of pastors and other believers in the town of Capira. We had been teaching about how to study different literary genres in the Bible.

We divided into groups and asked them to spend a little time applying what we had taught. Each group, not realizing what the other was doing, began their time of study with prayer.

We were so excited, because we had been careful to emphasize the importance of prayer and dependence upon the Holy Spirit in Bible study and interpretation.

Believers all around the world need, and want, to be taught and discipled. Seeing results like this is what we pray God will accomplish through our ministry.

The Excellent Ones

Our lives have drastically changed over the last month, and we are so thankful for how God is working in our lives and the things He is teaching us. One thing He is teaching us is the joy of partnering with others in the gospel.

David wrote in Psalm 16:3, "As for the saints in the land, they are the excellent ones, in whom is all my delight."

As we think of those who have committed to partner with us in prayer and financial support, we are filled with delight. We see you as "the excellent ones." We get to serve with you in making disciples of all nations! We're honored, humbled, and amazed.

January Report

God has reminded us that He always provides! After one month of full-time work building our ministry support team, we have 30% of our needed monthly support promised to our ministry.

January was very busy, and we expect February to be the same. We will continue to meet with individuals, families, small groups, and churches to present our ministry and extend the invitation to join our ministry support team.

If you, or someone you know, would be interested in financially partnering with us, we would be honored to share our ministry. Contact us any time. By God's grace, we are working hard to build a solid, spiritually healthy team of individuals, families, and churches that is committed to making disciples of all nations for the glory of God.
